

LOCAL GOVERNMENT TRAINING MODULE 4

“Cultural and Recreational Lands Act”
“Exploring our legal recovery options”

AGENDA

1.00pm Registration

Sporting Clubs provisions under the Cultural and Recreational Lands Act

1.15 pm Prue Greenfield - Forbes Dowling Lawyers
The CRL Act purpose and property classifications/qualifications and the Appeal Process

1.30 pm Neil Thorpe- The Monash Experience
The process in determining the charge.

The determination of the payment of "back rates" and how that differs from the traditional methodology used by Local Government.

3.00 pm Afternoon Tea

Legal Recovery Options

3:30 pm Prue Greenfield - Forbes Dowling Lawyers
Exploring our legal recovery options
Including Sale of Property under Section 181 of the Local Government Act, Bankruptcy and Attachment of earnings

4:30 pm Presentation of Certificates to all Attendees

4:45 pm Drinks

"Cultural and Recreational Land Act" "Exploring our legal recovery options"

At the end of the Training Day, all attendees were invited to comment on the day's achievements. ARL is delighted to report the feedback received and would like to thank everyone who participated in making this Training Day so successful.

"I really enjoyed both of today's sessions. The presenters were very knowledgeable and informative."

Neal Wrigley - Greater Bendigo City Council

"ARL's commitment to Local Government, in particular to the rating profession has once again been demonstrated through this training module."

Terry Everett - Moreland City Council

"This topic was very interesting and informative, one of the best I have attended."

Ross Bransgrove - Manningham Council

"Very informative and excellent value."

Ian Holland - Frankston City Council

"Very interesting and informative. Thank you!"

Donna Bradshaw - Whitehorse City Council

"CRLA in particular was relevant in that many Councils are not complying with the CRLA ACT."

John Muzyk - Bayside City Council

"Thank you to ARL for going out of it's way to provide excellent industry training for us in Local Government."

Sam Criticos - Greater Dandenong City Council

"Both presenters and presentations were excellent, entertaining and not drawn out. That in itself is a bonus."

Linda Hughes - Moonee Valley City Council

"Well presented and organised."

Mario Patti - Maribyrnong City Council

"Very informative, well spoken presenters. Great value."

Kerrie Wellington - Darebin Council